"For the past thirty years, Gatewood has worked as a visual anthropologist, closely observing a variety of American subcultures. His explorations have taken him deep into the sexual underground, in whose excesses he finds clear connections to shamanism, mortification of the flesh, transcendence of pain, and other ancient rituals and spiritual concerns."

I have about 200 large proof prints and some 2,000 4 x 6 work prints.

My archive also includes 29 3' x 5' photo silkscreens (8 stretched and framed), 42 photo collages, 100 found erotic photos, plus photos and memorabilia of William S. Burroughs, Annie Sprinkle, Spider Webb, Marco Vassi, and others. I also have ten boxes of body modification clippings and ephemera, a large file of beatnik and bohemian material, and more.
